

Seat 1- All Counties Except Coweta & Fayette

Wayne "Ross"
Henry
(Incumbent)

Experience: Ross has served as director on the Coweta-Fayette EMC board since 2002 representing the service areas other than Coweta and Fayette counties. He has been a member of the board's Finance and Public Relations Committees. He is also Board Chairman of Relyco Resources, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of CFEMC. He is a graduate of Heard County High School and attended Jacksonville State University. He also has three P.O.S.T certifications in Law Enforcement.

Community Involvement: Ross has been the Sheriff of Heard County for 24 years with a career in law enforcement spanning over 33 years. He serves on numerous boards and is active in many projects and causes benefiting children, especially his Toys for Tots Christmas project. He brings together public and private partners to provide an array of resources to his community. He is a member of the Franklin United Methodist Church. Ross was presented the Georgia EMC 2012 Community Service & Volunteerism Award for EMC directors and recently received the Distinguished Citizen Medal from DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution), the James Stewart Chapter.

Length of EMC Membership: 36 years

Seat 2- Coweta County

James "Lee"
Hunter
(Incumbent)

Experience: Lee was appointed to the Coweta-Fayette EMC Board in June 2020. He also currently serves as Vice President of the Board of Directors of True Natural Gas, a subsidiary of CFEMC, and has served on the TNG Board since its inception in 2002. Lee retired from Southwire Company as Executive Vice President and the company's Chief Information Officer after a 36-year career. He holds a BS degree in Electrical Engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology and an MBA from the University of West Georgia. He is a Registered Professional Engineer, a Certified Energy Manager, and has received a U.S. Patent. During his career with Southwire, Lee served as a member of the code-making panel of the National Electrical Code for more than 12 years, and he received the 2002 Georgia National CIO of the Year Award. Additionally, Lee was selected by Computerworld as one of its Premier 100 IT Leaders in 2005.

Community Involvement: He's a member of the White Oak Golden K Kiwanis Club in Newnan and the Georgia Tech Alumni Association. He is a past member of the Board of Trustees of Inner Harbor Children's Hospital in Douglasville. In addition, Lee is a member and Deacon of the Newnan First Baptist Church. In his retirement, Lee is proud to work with his son, Scott, at Hunter Wealth Management. Lee has his series 7, 66, and 24 Securities registrations.

Length of EMC Membership: 40 years

Seat 3- Fayette County

James W.
"Jim" Fulton, III
(Incumbent)

Experience: Jim has served on the Coweta-Fayette EMC Board representing Fayette County since March 2003. He was elected Vice Chairman of the Board in October 2010 and Chairman in October 2011. He has served on the Policy and Public Relations and Finance Committees. He is on the Board of Relyco Resources, Inc., and True Natural Gas, both subsidiaries of CFEMC. He has earned the Credentialed Cooperative Directors' Program certification, the Board Leadership certification and holds the Director Gold certificate. He is Member Representative on the Green Power EMC Board and is the co-op's voting delegate to National Rural Electric Cooperative Association and National Cooperative Services Corporation. He is a graduate of Georgia Tech with a degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Community Involvement: Jim, a well-respected residential and commercial real estate industry veteran, has earned numerous distinctions and served on real estate boards throughout his 40-plus years in real estate. In addition, Jim has been active in numerous community projects and organizations including the Peachtree City Development Authority, Mid-West Georgia Home Builders Association, and Chairman of the Fayette County Chamber of Commerce, where he was named Fayette County's "Businessperson of the Year" in 1990.

Length of EMC Membership: 44 years

Joyce E.
Davidson

Experience: Joyce has over 30 years of combined service in both the Federal and State regulatory arena, directing the environment in which public utilities operated. Her oversight included a workforce which reviewed and recommended changes to the operation, structure, expansion and earnings of utilities. She also negotiated contracts, settlements and rate increases. She holds a BS in Business Management and her Georgia Real Estate License.

Community Involvement: She serves on the Board of Directors for the Stonebriar Community. Previously, she has served on the Daily Living Center Board and The Referral Center. She held various leadership roles in local golf organizations and the Political Action Committee for the Fayette County Board of Realtors.

Length of EMC Membership: 6 years