Notice

Criminal justice agencies which disseminate criminal history records to private individuals and to public and private agencies shall advise all requestors that, if an employment or licensing decision adverse to the record subject is made, the record subject must be informed by the individual agency making the adverse decision of all information pertinent to that decision. This disclosure must include information that a criminal history record check was made, the specific contents of the record, and the effect the record had upon the decision. Failure to provide all such information to the person subject to the adverse decision is a misdemeanor. This disclosure requirement applies to criminal justice agencies when such agencies make employment licensing decisions adverse to record subjects.
